& PARIS INSTITUTE FOR ADVANCED STUDY

This presentation will discuss a short passage from Ibn Khurradadbiḥ's geographical treatise in light of the political geography of the first Sasanian King of Kings. It will explore the possible content and organization of the lost Sasanian Gāhnāmag (Book of Thrones) and suggest that Ibn Khurdādhbih's passage may have been derived from this text. By including numismatic and archaeological evidence, the presentation will make conclusions about the early Sasanian rule and issues such as the length of Kushan-Sasanian rule.
